MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: Director, Office of External Affairs

SUBJECT: Speaking Engagement at the Center for the Study of the Presidency

1. You are scheduled to address the Center for the Study of the Presidency's 1982 Harry J. Sievers Memorial Lecture Series on Wednesday, 17 November. The lecture begins at approximately 5:00 p.m. on the 12th Floor, Faculty Lounge, Lowenstein Center, Fordham University at Lincoln Center, 113 West 60th Street, New York City. It is requested that you speak for 30 minutes and allow 30 minutes for a question and answer period. Dr. R. Gordon Hoxie will introduce you. The 1982 lectures have as their theme "American Economic and Foreign Policy." A reception at the Center from 6:15-6:50 p.m. is to follow your lecture. You will then leave at approximately 6:50 p.m. for the dinner given in your honor at the Century Association, 7 West 43rd Street. Refreshments will be served at approximately 7:10 p.m. with dinner for 30 commencing at 7:30 p.m. This will be an opportunity for informal, off-the-record conversation. The evening should end at approximately 9:15 p.m.

2. The Center expects between 150-175 attendees at the lecture. The audience will be comprised of representatives from "town and gown" which includes university faculty, community leaders and members from foreign Consulates. Dr. Hoxie sent invitations to all the Consulates in New York City. A few students are also expected to be in the audience. Although the press has not been invited, it is not barred from attending. Dr. Hoxie reports that few working journalists ever attend these sessions. He has asked if you wish to invite any family or friends to come to the lecture or dinner or both. A list of dinner attendees will be sent to you next week.

3. Dr. Hoxie requests permission to possibly publish your lecture in the Center's Presidential Studies Quarterly.
